

BAIYUE — ĐẠI VIỆT DIGITAL CULTURAL UNIVERSE

Executive Project One-Pager & Strategic Summary | 2026–2027

1. Executive Summary

Baiyue — Đại Việt is an independent digital cultural heritage initiative re-centering Vietnamese cultural memory through primary historical epigraphy, 432Hz pentatonic orchestral music, dynastic material arts, and open-access documentation. The project explores historical and ethnocultural connections associated with the Baiyue/Yue world of ancient Northern Vietnam and Southern Lingnan (B.C. 2000 – A.D. 1789), bridging fragmented archives into an accessible, living digital corpus.

2. Established Foundation (Already Built)

- 80+ Open Research Treatises: Documented notes on dynastic history, Lý–Trần attire, martial disciplines, and Tuệ Tĩnh botanical medicine.
- 1,000+ Narrative Lore Chapters: Multi-generational world-building codified across medieval Vietnamese themes.
- 3,250+ Original Audio Compositions: Traditional instruments (Đàn Bầu, Đàn Tranh, Sáo Trúc, Trống Đồng) integrated with orchestral strings.
- Open-Access Repository: Publicly accessible on GitHub under Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial (CC BY-NC 4.0).

3. Next Phase: From Digital Corpus Accessible Public Cultural Value

With the foundational research and creative corpus established, the initiative is now seeking project-based funding and cultural partnerships to transform this internal archive into accessible public cultural outputs: interactive museum installations, school educational kits, bilateral international co-productions, and master traditional instrument field recordings.
